Fee Liability 2024/25 Academic Year

Cancellation, Deferral, Intermision and Transfer

Cancellation, Deferral, Intermision and Transfer (as each of those terms is defined in the Terms and Conditions) requests carry the same fee liability consequences as Cancellation as they all involve the Cancellation of a reserved course place.

Your fee liability on Cancellation, Deferral, Intermision and Transfer is based on the Annual Tuition Fee for your entire course.

Cooling off period

- Students can cancel their courses within 14 days of acceptance (the 'cooling off period').
- If you cancel during the cooling off period and before your Course start date, you will not be liable for your Annual Tuition Fee and your Deposit will not be refunded.
- If you cancel during the cooling off period but your Course has already started, The University of Law can charge for materials provided and a reasonable pro rata fee.

Undergraduate Course Duration	Year of Study	No Annual Fee Liability	First Fee Liability	Second Fee Liability	Full Annual Fee Liability
		If you cancel on or before the date relevant to your Course Duration and Year of Study below you will not be liable for your Annual Tuition Fee. However, if you cancel after the cooling off period your Deposit will not be refunded.	If you cancel on or after the date relevant to your Course Duration and Year of Study below but before the relevant second liability date, you will be liable to pay one third of your Annual Tuition Fee and your full Deposit on the date set out below.	If you cancel on or after the date relevant to your Course Duration and Year of Study below but before the relevant full liability date, you will be liable to pay two thirds of your Annual Tuition Fee and your full Deposit on the date set out below.	If you cancel on or after the date relevant to your Course Duration and Year of Study below you will be liable for all of your Annual Fee and your full Deposit.
